Prelude

Call to Worship

L: How shall we prepare this house for the coming of the King?

All: With branches of cedar, the tree of royalty.

L: How shall we prepare this house for the coming of the eternal Christ?

All: With garlands of pine and fir, whose leaves are ever living, ever green.

L: How shall we prepare this house for the coming of our Savior?

All: With wreaths of holly and ivy, telling of his passion, death, and resurrection.

L: How shall we prepare our hearts for the coming of the Son of God?

All: By hearing again the words of the prophets, who foretold the saving work of God.

L: For God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved.

All: Glory to God in the highest!

The Opening Prayer

Almighty God, who gave your Son Jesus Christ so that we may know of our forgiveness and salvation, help us to be loyal followers of our living God, that we may always hear his word, follow his teachings, and live in his Spirit. May it be so that every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that he is Lord; for your eternal glory. Amen.

Opening Hymn, No. 715 “Rejoice, the Lord is King”

Announcements & Upcoming Events

- Advent Poinsettias - Poinsettias can be purchased for $12 in honor or memory of someone special; there are fifty total available. (The deadline to submit names and money is Dec. 12.) The poinsettias will be displayed in the sanctuary for worship Dec. 5-26 and can then be taken home. Checks can be made to the church with "Poinsettia" in the memo line.
- Churchwide Advent Study - All youth and adults are invited to meet in the fellowship hall during Sunday School throughout Advent (Nov. 28-Dec. 19) to reflect on and discuss "All The Good: A Wesleyan Way of Christmas" led by Pastor Adam.
- Christmas Caroling - All are invited to join us for an evening of caroling around town on Sunday, Dec. 5, 5pm. We'll meet at the fellowship hall.
- Two Open Positions Needed - Beginning January 2022, we need a Nursery Coordinator to plan the nursery schedule for the new calendar year and an Administrative Council secretary. Adam and Tyler are happy to help answer questions, offer guidance, and assist you throughout the year. Pray and let us know if you're interested!
